The Gulu-Gulu Café is your go-to spot if you're on the prowl for great atmosphere and food.

Are you in the mood to hammer out some work? Perhaps you're looking to enjoy a beer or crepe while watching Salem pass you by at the café window. Maybe a battle royale against your girlfriend in Connect Four is more your thing. Whatever you're after, Gulu has you covered.

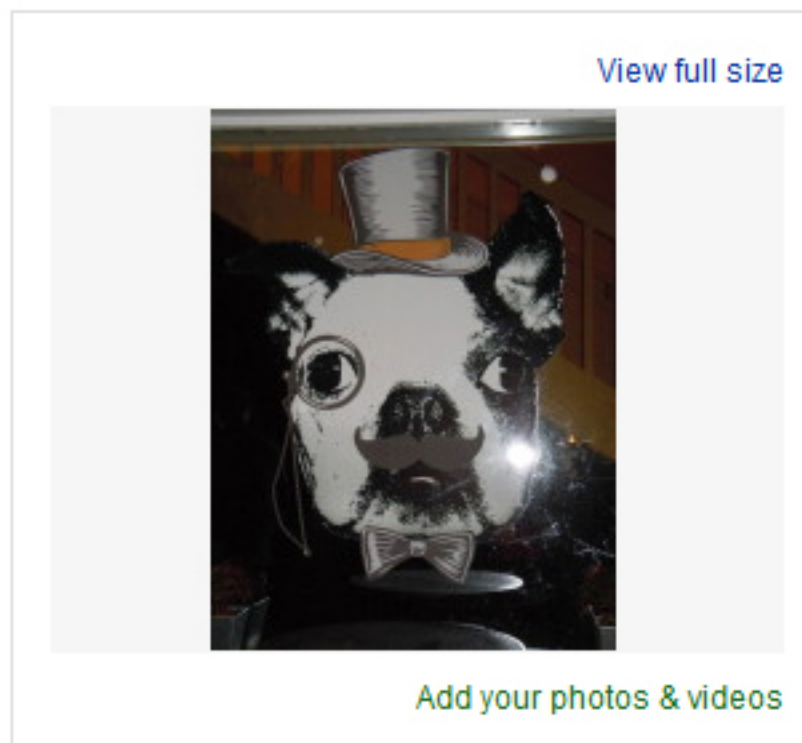

Situated on the corner of Essex and Washington streets in Lappin Park, Gulu offers a selection of breakfast foods, crepes, sandwiches, beer and other tasty "munchies, teasers and tidbits."

If you're a diehard vegan check out "The Essjay" wrap for a tasty combo of hummus, greens and strawberries. Prefer something a little more hearty? The "JackMax'n Cheese" might be just what you're looking for.

Dedicated to the art community, the café features local artists, invites local musicians in to play regularly and holds an open mic night every Wednesday.

In addition to food, coffee, tea, smoothies and hot chocolate, Gulu offers a wide selection of beer as well as wine.

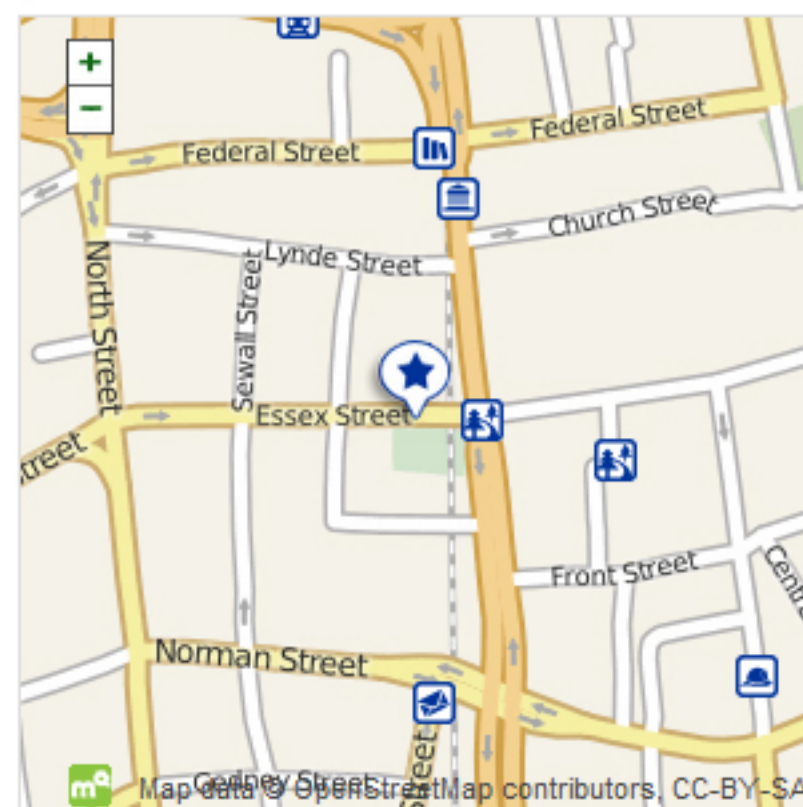

A home to local regulars and visitors alike, there is always something going on at Gulu. Visit the café and get to know the locale's friendly staff to see what the chatter is all about.
