SALEM — This is the night for all Salem's countrymen to lend their ears to the Gulu-Gulu Cafe.

The hip little restaurant on the corner of Washington and Essex streets is hosting the Salem Theatre Company's tribute to William Shakespeare.

Audience members are invited to read — or recite — their favorite lines from Shakespeare during tonight's 8 p.m. open mike night.

It's all being done in honor of the Bard's 445th birthday.
